By WALTER M. BARRETT

In soliciting support on Truckee voters at the August primary election Superior Judge Raglan Tuttle is asking for nothing to which he is not fully entitled. If there is one single county official who has earned the support of the local electorate, it is Judge Tuttle. Despite the stress of business in his important office, a great many times he has gone out of his way to be of service to Truckee interests—not in an official capacity, but simply because of his desire to be of service to his friends in this region. Often county officials, far removed from some sections of their counties, are inclined to pass more lightly upon problems of those outlying communities. It can honestly be said for Judge Tuttle, however, that he has not only fulfilled his obligation to the voters, but has not overlooked an opportunity to be of service whether it fell in line of duty or not. Judge Tuttle is worthy of the wholehearted support of this district.

Probably the funniest story we have heard was the one told this week, when a friend confided that he had been told the editor was a fine one to talk about trading at home, when he went out of town every Saturday to do his buying. Of course, we couldn't get sore at such a falsehood, but it certainly offers good evidence that the one who told the story is one of the violators of the plan to keep Truckee money at home. And even though the lie was the truth, it still provides no reason for not trading at home. There are too many good, sound reasons why we should buy in Truckee, to try and find an excuse for not doing so.

We wonder what the tourists think of our wind-blown debris as they pass down the main street. Mind you, we are not criticizing anyone, but it is sure a bad looking front to present to our visitors.

Had we seen Guess Again, the annual high school play before we wrote our story last week we might have eliminated the word amateurish. Those boys and girls did a fine job. The presentation evidenced the hard work they had been put in order to prepare themselves and there can be no criticism for any member of the cast. Miss Anna Marie Munro, who spent hours patiently directing the students is also entitled to great deal of credit. We would say that Guess Again was one of the best student plays we have witnessed.

FISHING IN THIS AREA IMPROVES AS HIGH WATER RECEDING

Slowly receding waters in the Truckee river still keeps trout fishing somewhat below the normal, although many anglers are obtaining good catches both below and above town on the river. Many of the lesser streams are still isolated by snow drifts, but each day sees more of them made available to the nimrods. Lake Tahoe has been good during the past two weeks, with a number of good catches reported from deep fishing. Fly fishing is still not yielding results, because of the deep and slightly muddy condition of the water in most sections.

Checking Station Will Be Left At Emigrant Trail Auto Camp For Time

L. S. Stephens, in charge of out of state registration for the state division of motor vehicles, was in Truckee briefly Wednesday and indicated the location of the Truckee checking station will remain at the Emigrant Trail Camp, at least for some time. It had been previously reported the station would be moved to either the Truckee-Tahoe Wye or the west end of Donner lake.

L. P. Volz, district manager of the California State Automobile Association from Auburn and V. H. Johnson of Grass Valley, attended the meeting of the Truckee Chamber of Commerce this week in the interest of proposed legislation which they hope will be approved at the election.

Youth Killed As Auto Wrecked At Tahoe; One Hurt

Open Verdict Is Returned By Coroner's Jury After Tahoe Inquest

EDITOR'S SON INJURED

Third Member of Party Not Involved Because Of Fortunate Chance

A coroner's jury meeting at the home of Judge Bliss in Tahoe Sunday night did not fix any blame for the fatal automobile accident near Carnelian Bay which cost Robert Shisoda, 22, 122 Rock street, Reno, his life and seriously injured Joseph McDonald, 24, son of a Reno newspaper editor.

The jury, comprised of Carl Bechtold, Sr., Frank Harden, C. W. Vernon, H. H. Hull, Carl Angstrom and Fred Reisel, found that Shisoda came to his death as the result of a fractured neck. Dr. C. B. Pedersen described the nature of the fatal injury.

While there is some doubt as to who was driving the machine when it left the road and crashed into a large tree, it was reported that McDonald was at the wheel.

The latter suffered a fractured pelvis and severe cuts and bruises. He was given first aid attention by Dr. Pedersen who dispatched the man to a Reno hospital where his condition is serious.

Shisoda's body remained at Tahoe until 1 a. m. at which time it was removed by Lait's ambulance to Truckee.

The fatal accident occurred about 6:30 p. m. on the curve near Tahoe Vista not far from the scene of a fatal crash last year. Sergeant C. E. McKee of the state highway patrol and Constable Harry Johnson were at the scene within a few minutes to conduct the investigation. They blamed speed on the curve as the cause of the mishap. The small car was virtually demolished and was towed to the Tahoe City Garage.

Somewhere on the north end of Tahoe is a young man, as yet unidentified, a friend of the wreck victims, who probably owes his life to the fact that he was not dressed and had to go home and change his clothes before he could join his two friends. He declined a lift into Tahoe with the boys, promising to join them later.

The ill-fated car was en route from Incline where a picnic had been held by the Reno school boys, to Tahoe Inn where a banquet was to have climaxed a jolly day's outing.

Carson School Students Visit Truckee During Their Annual Skip Day

The senior class of the Carson City high school visited at the local school last Friday while celebrating their annual sneak day. Several of the Carson group visited the various classes and asked questions regarding the school.

Snow, High Water Is Delaying Road Repairs

Many are anxiously awaiting the opening of the Truckee-Sierra Valley road. Aside from the deep drifts at the summit, the Loyalton road has a bad washout through the fill on the Little Truckee river bridge. On the road between Hobart Mills and Sierraville there is a washout each side of the Little Truckee bridge on the new highway and the road is washed out close to the Sage Hen bridge on the old highway. Heavy drifts and running water is expected to delay repair of the roads for some time.

Lions See Films Showing Progress of Telephone Communication in U. S.

Guess Again Proves Real Hit Here When Students Turn Actors

Large Audience Attends High School's Annual Play Last Week

The play, Guess Again, presented by the senior class of the high school at Masonic hall last Friday night was well received by the large audience, many persons expressing themselves as being impressed with the histrionic ability displayed by the students during the course of the three-act comedy.

The event was an annual one and the proceeds are used to swell the student body fund.

Although the students do not have a course in dramatics throughout the school year, they gave credible performances under the able direction of Miss Anna Marie Munro.

During the intermission, Miss Yvonne Joseph gave two well-rendered violin selections, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Jack Wolert and Miss Barbara Bolender also proved her musical talent at the piano.

The following were in the cast and production staff:

George Zorich, Robert Bowers, Marjorie Everett, Douglas Barrett, Mary Pierce, Ida Stewart, Juanita Ogan, Frank Titus, Karl Kielhofer, Eva Moro, Wallace Watkins, Tina Gini, Flori Digesti, John Sabini, Adolph Schmidt, Antonette Sala and Patricia Carson.

During an intermission Frank Titus presented Miss Munro with a gift as a token of appreciation for the work she did in directing the play.

Immediately following the play, the cast and production staff members were guests of Miss Munro at a banquet in the California cafe.

He reported the convention the best he has attended and spoke highly of the parade, which included 17 bands.

Many Concerns In South Protesting Stations Removal

Large Truck Manufacturer Is Leading Fight To Save Stations

GROUPS OPPOSE PLAN

Chamber of Commerce, Auto Clubs Still Seeking to Ban Stations

That all major organizations in the of the state chamber of commerce and the two automobile clubs in attempting to have the state border checking stations abolished is evidenced in a letter to William E. Koehler, clerk at the Truckee station, from Matt L. Moreland, owner of the Moreland Motor Truck Company, one of the major concerns of the state.

Moreland says that everyone in the southern part of the state, with the exception of the automobile clubs, has gone on record as opposed to the closing of the stations.

"As a matter of fact," Moreland wrote, "the recommendation was for enlarging the number of stations to cover all the border cities, and give the inspectors proper authority."

He wrote further: "The board of supervisors, Mayor Shaw, the chief of police of Los Angeles, the sheriff of Riverside county and San Bernardino county, and representatives of the chamber of commerce at Barstow, all appeared at a meeting here (Los Angeles) and vigorously expressed their disapproval of the plan to eliminate the stations."

"The state chamber of commerce headed by Mr. Mitchell, of San Francisco, seemed to be determined to close the stations. He is abetted by the automobile clubs. Mr. Ingels, of the department, seemed, so I am told, to agree with them that a great deal of money would be saved if the stations were closed."

"I do not know if the state authorities will follow the recommendation of the state chamber of commerce or not. I certainly hope not."

GRAMMAR SCHOOL'S PROGRAM PROVES BIG SUCCESS HERE

The children of the grammar school presented their musical fantasy to a well-filled auditorium last Tuesday evening.

The primary and intermediate grades depicted the enjoyment of traveling around the world while remaining at home on a rainy afternoon, in the operetta "Let's Go Traveling."

The older pupils gave an imaginative play entitled "Geewhilkens" which was woven around the dire results caused by prevaricating.

A chorus of voices was heard in the opening and closing songs, adding to the evening's entertainment.

Mrs. Eva Harley and Mrs. Jennie Watkins instructed the children in their parts and the mothers were responsible for the pretty costumes worn by those participating in the program.

SELLING TROUT

Word reaches us that many of the trout being caught in the Truckee River are being marketed. Doubtless the salesmen and buyers are equally aware of the law prohibiting this practice, but are not good enough sports to abide by the code. And we will further venture to say that there is also little doubt that the market fishermen contributed not one cent, aside from their two dollar license fees to raising or protecting the fish. We can only wish for their apprehension so names may be named. Continued disregard for our fish and game laws comprises the greatest menace to this area.

THINK BEFORE YOU VOTE

Sensible advice was recently given by Mrs. Paul Eliel of the Stanford Women's Faculty Club: "Examine the people running your government and running for office," she admonished. "No law is better than the men administering it."

Unfortunately, too few of us take the trouble to study the whys and whereofs of government, and government, in the final analysis, can only reflect our own civic interest—or the lack of it.

CONGRESS LOOKS HOMEWARD

President Roosevelt has apparently called it a day for this session. All important measures have been passed, or are headed for the White House, and congressmen—having emptied their suitcases of reforms—are thinking of home and that six months' pause that refreshes.

Business now knows the size of the tax bill it will foot during the next fiscal year, for the tax measure has passed both houses—one important uncertainty removed! The only concern is that Congress may descend on Capitol Hill next January with a new suitcaseful of reforms and brainwaves.

THOSE DEBTS AGAIN

Lord Beaverbrook, England's biggest newspaper publisher, gave America a reassuring pat on the head a few days ago and said, in effect: "There, little boy, don't cry. You'll get your pie in the sky—someday."

He announced that one day Britain would reach a point where it would be able to wipe out its five billion dollar war debt to the United States on terms satisfactory to the taxpayers. Judging from recent opinion polls, the American taxpayers want that debt settled only on one term—full payment.

Lord Beaverbrook is doubtless as well aware of that as anyone, but with troublous times prowling over Europe, he can't be blamed for saying a few cheerful words to the United States, can he? America's men, money, and cooperation have proved extremely valuable in the past. Why not again?

One advantage a bachelor has over a married man is that he can put on his socks from either end. — Whit's Wit

"It beats all how quick that does it!"

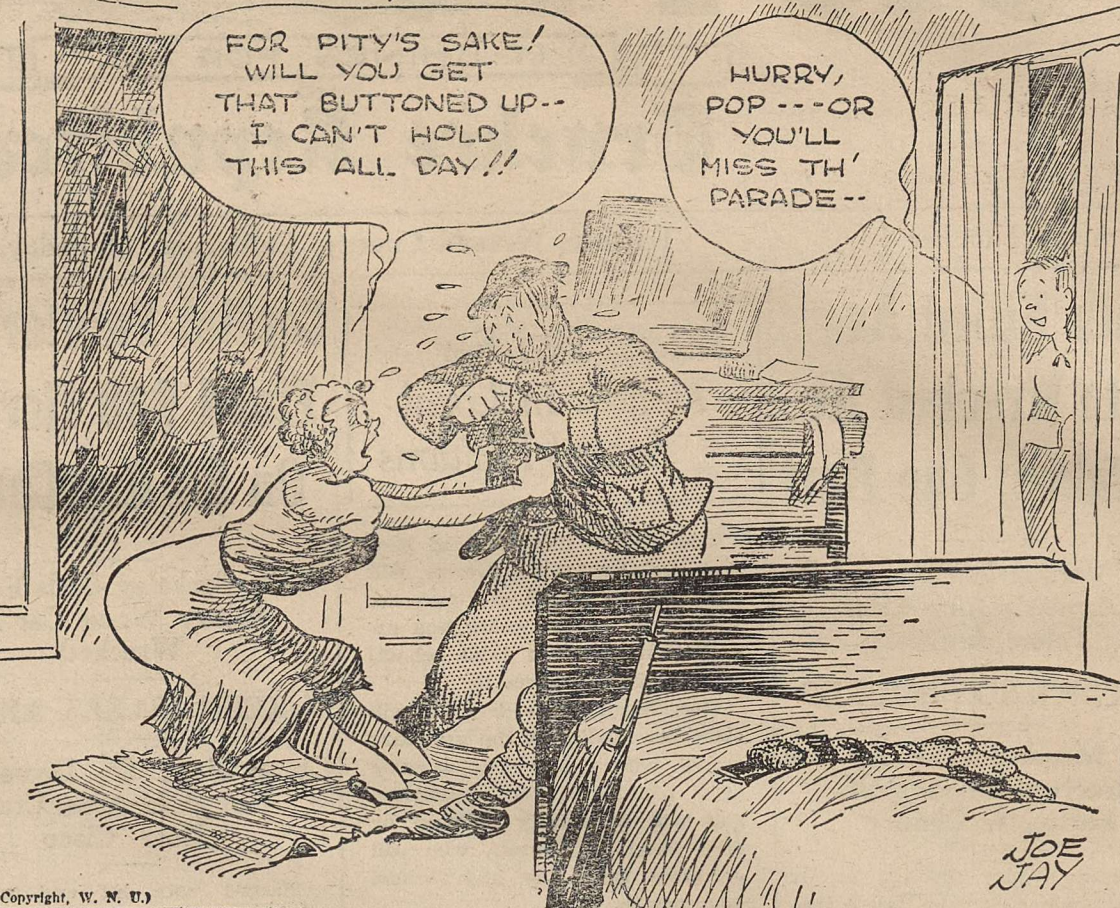

The sheriff's right! Just about the shortest line there is between you and your objective—the inn where you'd like to stop tonight, or the resort where those big fish are said to be waiting—is a telephone line! The Tahoe Realty company last week did their civic duty toward the new community center building by donating a new desk for the post office. The building is fast nearing completion and is receiving a generous wave of complimentary comment because of the attractive arrangement of the rooms and inside finish and the pleasing outside contour of the building itself. The first mail was distributed on Saturday, May 21, marking a very special day in the history of the townfolks who have waited long and patiently for their lock boxes. The matter of furnishing the building will be taken up in the very near future.

21 CENTS FROM EACH DOLLAR SPENT LAST YEAR WENT TO CHARITY

SACRAMENTO, May 26.—(UP)—Out of every dollar spent by California counties last year, 21 cents was spent for charities and corrections as contrasted with the eight cents 10 years ago, it was announced by State Controller Harry B. Riley.

The increase amount of money spent on relief, old age pensions and correctional institutions is mainly due to additional federal and state grants, since there were no pensions in 1927.

FIVE OFFICE SEEKERS ANNOUNCE FOR COUNTY POSTS

POLITICALLY SPEAKING

By Jack Welter
United Press Staff Correspondent

SACRAMENTO, May 26.—(UP)—District Attorney Otis Babcock goes before the Sacramento grand jury next Tuesday in a third attempt to uncover wrongdoing in the California

JUDGE TUTTLE WILL AGAIN SEEK POST OF SUPERIOR JUDGE

Eastern Nevada County friends of Superior Judge Raglan Tuttle will be pleased to learn that he has announced his intention of seeking reelection to the office he has so successfully occupied for the past 12 years.

Judge Tuttle was appointed to the superior court bench of this county by former Governor Friend Richardson, upon the resignation of Judge George L. Jones. He twice since has been elected to the important post.

The record established by Judge Tuttle is his best recommendation to the voters. Often he has been called to preside in trials of state and nation wide importance. So far as known he has never had a decision reversed and he has won much favorable comment from the State Judicial council for the fair and impartial manner in which his cases have been tried.

A member of a pioneer Nevada County family, Judge Tuttle has earned the respect and friendship of hundreds of residents in all parts of the county.

has been violated by some of the barrister solos, who, he charges, take fees from clients concerned in matters upon which the legislators have a vote.

Babcock has not been conspicuously successful in his previous efforts.

He indicted Assemblyman Gene Flint on charges of conspiring to offer a bribe. After two trials, in which both juries disagreed, the matter was dropped.

It is considered doubtful whether the present proceeding can make much headway. In fact Babcock admitted he is not at all sure whether indictments can be secured.

However, the proceedings will be public for the first time in California history and the prosecution perhaps is hopeful of clearing the atmosphere. In line with this reasoning, it is believed likely recommendations will be made to the 1939 legislature calling for a general tightening of the laws to eliminate "fee" taking.

To build his present case, Babcock

FRANK STEEL TELLS PLANS TO AGAIN SEEK COUNTY JOB

Elsewhere in this issue of the Sierra Sun the voters of Nevada County will find the political card of Frank Steel for county treasurer and tax collector for the primary election on August 30.

Steel, known to hundreds of folks as "Chico" during his term of office, has established a record of efficiency and it is with this record of the past he asks for a favorable consideration for reelection. As the tax collector Steel receives all moneys paid into the county by taxes and as treasurer he receives all other funds and in the latter capacity pays out all money on allowed claims by the board of supervisors or other authority.

As tax collector it is necessary for him to prepare and mail to all the tax payers of the county a copy of their tax statement. It has often been disclosed at Tax Collectors' conventions the fact that only a few counties prepare such statements on account of the volume of work involved. Steel still contends this is a service to the taxpayer.

Steel is a native of Grass Valley, being born at Union Hill. He is a graduate of the Grass Valley high school. He was employed in the mines for about 15 years and by the tidings office as a printer. He accepted the appointment of deputy county clerk under the late County Clerk George Coughlan, a position he held until the appointment as county treasurer and tax collector at the time of the resignation of William T. Garland.

Steel assures the voters of Nevada county that he will continue the work of his office with the same integrity and courteous service as in the past if the voters see fit to return him to the office which he seeks.

legislature.

The prosecutor is disturbed about the conduct and activities of certain lawyer members. He alleges that intent if not the letter of the law has had the assistance of the private investigating firm of Edwin Atherton Associates, of Los Angeles.

HAMMILL ASKING AID OF VOTERS DURING COMING ELECTION

John M. Hammill, Nevada County assessor, has announced his candidacy for reelection at the August 30 primary election.

During his connection with the office, both as deputy and as the elected assessor, Hammill has so familiarized himself with both the real and personal properties of the county, subject to taxation that his every act in that connection is based on positive knowledge and not guesswork which so often is the case in such a capacity.

As an example of his thoroughness with the affairs of the office, the method which he handled, to the advantage of the taxpayers, the return of the public utilities property to the county rolls in 1935. He brought the assessment rolls of Nevada county up to the requirements of the State Board of Equalization, which was accepted by that body and which in fact saved each taxpayer of the county an increase of 25 per cent which would have been placed thereon had the assessor passed the matter entirely up to the board of equalization.

The duties of the office are very exacting and call for information to be attained only by long familiarity with the subject.

The incumbent official promises, if reelected, to devote to the assessing the same care and equality toward all taxpayers which have characterized his administration.

Atherton is a former G-man with an outstanding record in the San Francisco police graft investigation. And he has a valuable assistant, Howard Philbrick, who has been doing undercover work for Babcock.

With this aid, it is possible the prosecutor has been able to find something tangible upon which to ask for indictments.

Condescension is the buttermilk of human kindness.—Glasgow Evening Citizen.

MCCORMACK AGAIN CANDIDATE FOR COUNTY CLERK JOB

R. N. McCormack, county clerk of Nevada County this week announced himself a candidate for reelection at the primaries on August 30. As clerk, McCormack has served two terms in the important office with its many varied duties.

"Mac" as he is familiarly known to scores of friends, is a native of Gold Flat and has lived his entire life in Nevada County except for the years he spent at Santa Clara University.

At his first term, McCormack was unopposed at the election and so thoroughly and efficiently did he conduct the affairs of the office that he met with no opposition for his second term.

The office of the county clerk entails some of the most important work in county government. He is ex-officio clerk of the board of supervisors and must keep all the vital records of the court and county.

Each year he must prepare the budget for the supervisors and publish it and the office has scores of lesser duties seldom mentioned but of great importance to the electors and taxpayers. These duties require a man of sound business training, education and keen knowledge. His many friends believe McCormack is well qualified and suited for the job.

He first saw service as deputy in the office of his uncle, the late County Clerk George Coughlan.

Few men have asked the support of the electorate with better qualifications for performance and a record of which to be proud than "Mac".

NETTELL ANNOUNCES CANDIDACY FOR RECORDER OFFICE

John E. (Jack) Nettell, of Grass Valley, widely known resident and a native of the western end of the county has announced he will be a candidate for the office of Nevada County recorder at the August 30 primary elections.

Nettell has been employed for a number of years in the mines about Grass Valley at present being employed at the Idaho Maryland Mine. When the war was declared, Nettell answered the call of his country and served in the army, receiving his honorable discharge in February of 1919. He returned to his home city and since has been a resident there. Always active in veterans welfare, Nettell is at present commander of Hague-Thomas-Hegerty Post No. 130, American Legion.

While this marks his first venture in the world of politics, the candidate during the early part of 1930 was appointed as undersheriff by the former sheriff, George R. Carter, and filled this position with distinction until January 1935.

The candidate, his wife and young son reside at 216 Pleasant Street in Grass Valley.

"If elected, I promise a prompt, efficient and courteous administration as recorder," Nettell said.

(Taken from the files of The Truckee Republican Nov. 15, 1879)

Bliss and Yerington's sawmill at Lake Tahoe has been shut down for want of logs. This is on account of the recent storms on the lake, which caused the waves to run so high that rafts cannot be taken over. The loggers are breaking camp in the mountains and are going into winter quarters. There are 600,000 feet of logs to be run down but it is thought that there will be no difficulty in getting them across the lake before winters sets in.

The snow was from four to six inches deep in Truckee on Thursday, but yesterday's thaw cleared it nearly all away.
